WOMEN IN TRUTH: A CHURCH MINISTRY REACHING OUT TO WOMEN IN NEED!

Women in Truth is a women's church ministry dedicated to helping each woman become all God created her to be.

In 1997, Ann Kuefner, a 15-year volunteer Women's Jail Chaplain in Florida and Georgia, saw the great need for "post-jail follow-up assistance within a loving, caring church family."

Thus began the Women in Truth Ministry, with a church Sunday School class of 3 excited women.

Soon the class grew to include women from the church, community, and other correctional and rehabilitation programs. To this very day, WIT is transforming the lives of literally hundreds of women who have committed their lives to the Lord Jesus Christ. Best of all, the supporting church family has gained a new perspective on outreach, opening up their hearts and using their spiritual gifts to serve others like never before!

The WIT web site—www.WomenInTruth.org—has a two-fold purpose:

1. A source of spiritual assistance for those in need.

The WIT Web Site has become a popular spiritual tool for women and families who are needing special prayer support, encouragement and guidance. With all the stress in our world today, we are even including an emergency "crisis line."

2. A role model for church ministry.

In 2007, the Women in Truth Ministry was featured on an International Christian television program as a leading role model for women's church ministry. Since then, we are dedicated to assisting other churches in beginning their own WIT women's ministries by sharing free ideas and supporting tools through our web site. We encourage new ministries to copy and use all tools as their own.

Each WIT Ministry will be different—developing according to the needs in the individual church communities. For example, not everyone will have a jail ministry but you can be ready with "welcome home" services, as well as helping other women who are going through difficult circumstances—hurting mothers, divorced & single women, widows, the abused, and others who are overcoming obstacles in their lives.

The WIT Web Site is available to any church who starts a Women in Truth Ministry. We want to include your testimonies and church information so others in your area who need a church home can find you! Let us work together to glorify the Lord!

WIT is managed by Founder/Director Emeritus Ann Kuefner; Director Dee Hillmann; and Co-Director Kathy Andriola.
